

ROYAL CITY
MISSION

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Hello,

As we approach the end of another year, I find myself reflecting on the incredible sense of community and connection that has defined this past year at Royal City Mission.

Thanks to your unwavering support, we've been able to nurture a unique space where individuals—no matter their circumstances—can contribute to building a community brimming with justice, beauty, and relationships.

2024 has been a difficult year for many. We've seen more new faces at the Mission than in previous years, as the struggle to stay afloat becomes increasingly difficult for so many.

While Royal City Mission remains a central hub for services and support, our work goes beyond meeting physical needs. As loneliness, disconnection, and the fracturing of community continue to grow, we take action—engaging in reconciliation, healing, and connection in a world that can often feel harsh. I'm continually amazed when people come to us distraught and leave with renewed hope, support, and a sense of connection to others who care.

As we look ahead to 2025, we know that more challenges await, but we are also filled with hope. The bonds we've formed this year are stronger than ever, and we're ready to face whatever comes with the support of friends like you. Your generosity ensures that Royal City Mission remains a constant, welcoming place where people can find connection, care, and hope.

Thank you for being a part of this community. Your support makes all the difference, and I am deeply grateful for it. May your holiday season be filled with peace, joy, and connection—knowing that your kindness is helping to build a stronger, more compassionate world for all.

Merry Christmas,

Kevin Coghill
